DR. DONALD R. TOMPKINS
Joins Local Doctor in Practice

Local Doctor
Introduces
New Associate

Announcement of the association of Donald R. Tompkins, M.D., with William J. Harrison, M.D. in the general practice of medicine and surgery was made today in a joint statement by the doctors. Their offices will continue at 2085 Torrance blvd., telephone Torrance 1487.

Born in Minot, North Dakota, November 30, 1904, Dr. Tompkins received his preliminary schooling in his home state, and also his pre-medical education at the University of North Dakota. He took his medical course at Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, Penn., from which he graduated in 1931.

After serving his internship in Seattle, Wash., Dr. Tompkins served in the U.S. Navy for several years.

Recently, Dr. Tompkins with his wife and two sons have resided in Texas. Mrs. Tompkins and sons are planning to move to Torrance in September in time for school enrollment here.

Auto-Plane Smash-up Hurts Two

A car parked on the dirt landing runway at Torrance Municipal Airport was alleged to be the blame for a plane-auto smashup Sunday, in which both occupants of a converted Army-type training plane were injured.

According to reports received by Officer Swayne, the pilot, Elmer L. McCune, Jr., of Lawndale, the second occupant in the plane. He suffered extensive tooth and mouth injuries; his nose was broken in three places.

Owner of the car involved was said to be Sam Nen, 1149 Revenna avenue.

Bank Surplus Fund Gaining

The surplus fund of the Torrance National Bank has been increased $27,500, bringing the total surplus to $50,000, it is announced by James W. Post, president. With the capital fund of $100,000, reserves and undivided profits of $88,760.25, the total capital of the popular community bank is now $238,760.25.
